A MESSAGE FROM Jim Skaggs

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 says, "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

The most often asked question for almost any minister of the gospel might be – "What is God's will for my life?" That is a great question.

While there is more than one answer and I often share the overall will for the follower of Christ that God's will is that we bring Him glory in all things, there is a verse that is very specific about what God's will is for EVERY Christian for all time. The truth of His will for all of His children is found in 1 Thessalonians 5. As we examine this text, we see clear teaching about how we are to face each day and each circumstance:

- Rejoice always
- Pray continually
- Give thanks in all circumstances

REJOICE...PRAY...GIVE THANKS!

Wow – so simple and yet so profound. Think about it. If we will only do those 3 things (that we can all do) each day, we would walk through each day better prepared for what God might allow us to experience. Sounds like a wonderful plan to get through each day.

So...in this season of Thanksgiving, remember the secret of walking through each day in a way that will honor God (by doing His will) and bless us.

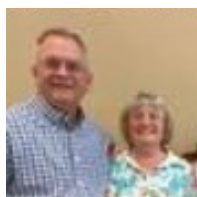

Rejoice, Pray, Give Thanks!

Be blessed today and always, Jim
