Biblical Teaching | Passionate Worship | Authentic Ministry

Dear Parent:

One of the core values of Central is that God designed the family as the primary place for discipleship. The Faith Path initiative exists to partner with you as you guide your child's spiritual journey one step at a time. Age appropriate kits have been created to help you leverage the best faith formation strategy for your child's stage of development. In this Rite of Passage kit, you will find practical ideas and suggested resources to help you give your teen a vision for adulthood. I urge you to start today by taking the following simple steps.

STEP ONE: LEARN

We have provided a short video that explains this particular Faith Path step. You will hear from both experts and ordinary families as they share practical suggestions from their experiences. You will also find a guide that offers practical tips and what we consider the best resources on the topic. If you would like additional coaching or information about Faith Path, please visit centralbcs.org/faithpath or contact Jeremy Lewis, Minister to Students, at jlewis@centralbcs.org.

STEP TWO: START

To help you start, a Rite of Passage planning guide has been provided. Begin prayerfully considering how you will invite your child to begin embracing the responsibilities of adulthood.

If your son or daughter is registered with Central, you will receive the next email on their eighteenth birthday explaining how to receive the Launch kit. To confirm that we have birthday information on your child, please log into our database at centralbcs.org/realms and update your family profile.

I hope you find this kit helpful in the process of forming the faith of your child at home. Feel free to visit centralbcs.org/faithpath to learn more or to determine if your child is ready for other Faith Path steps.

In Christ,

Phillip Bethancourt
Senior Pastor

RITE OF PASSAGE

Give a Vision for Adulthood

CENTRAL

What is a Rite of Passage?

A rite of passage is a special event signifying a transition from one stage to another. This is an ideal time to affirm and help your child anticipate and prepare to accept God's plan for the future. Challenge your teen to leave behind the world of childhood and invite them into the ranks of emerging adulthood.

How to do a Rite of Passage

It is less important how you plan your child's rite of passage than that you plan it. Some families host a simple dinner with family and close friends. Others do something more elaborate such as a roadtrip adventure with various stops. Decide and plan what works best for your teen and your situation.

STEP ONE: Create a plan to make this a meaningful experience. Read one of the recommended resources for more ideas or utilize the Rite of Passage Planning Sheet provided with this kit. A small investment of thought and effort will mean a great deal to your son or daughter.

STEP TWO: Invite people who have had an impact in your teen's life and/or whom they respect. Give each person a specific topic on which he or she will speak or write a letter. Some topics may include work, marriage, integrity, faith, purity, family, etc.

STEP THREE: Make it easy for others to participate by providing them with recommended wording for their talk or letter in order to help them avoid becoming nervous or attending ill-prepared. (Download sample letters at centralbcs.org/faithpath/riteofpassage)

Give a Blessing

It is very important that parents use this milestone to give a blessing usually in the form of a letter affirming the teen's potential and expressing gratitude for his or her life. For more on the power and process of giving a blessing, review the Blessing kit at centralbcs.org/faithpath/blessing.

Give a Vision for the Future

Take time to provide direction for the future. Cast vision and direct your child in seeking the Lord as they enter a season of significant decisions that will impact the future.

Give a Gift

Consider purchasing or making something to give your teen during this time. It does not need to be extravagant. It is more important it serve as a tangible keepsake of the event your child can hold on to for years to come. Ideas include a piece of jewelry, a book of letters/blessings, a sword for guys, or a crown for girls.

Set the Stage

The rite of passage event serves as an opportunity to set a new tone for the changing relationship with your child. Your role is changing from primarily teacher to mostly coach as he or she accepts the new freedoms and responsibilities that accompany young adulthood. Let your child know that you will be there to help him or her work through the challenges and navigate the landmines as they take ownership for choices and a future walk with God. Plan to create intentional one-on-one times to connect and to keep the lines of communication open over the coming months and years.

RITE OF PASSAGE

Guide & Sample Letters

CENTRAL

RITE OF PASSAGE PLANNING GUIDE

Even the most simple rite of passage experience can have a powerful impact in your teen's life. Ask yourself the following questions to plan the best approach for your son or daughter.

ASSESS

- Is our relationship strong enough for the experience to feel authentic versus forced?
- Does my child have other adults in his/her life who have had enough influence to participate in such an experience?
- Does my teen show signs he/she is willing to move toward adult responsibilities and attitudes?

If you answer "no" to any of these questions, it might be better to plan a special dinner alone together to begin meaningful dialog rather than attempt the full rite of passage experience.

WHEN

- What day is best to make this event special? On a birthday? In conjunction with a holiday? As a special day of its own?
- What date would work best for those who might need to travel to participate?

WHO

- What relatives should participate? Grandparents? Respected aunts or uncles? Older brothers or sisters?
- Is the child close to a pastor, youth minister, teacher, or coach he/she respects?
- If you are not planning the event as a surprise, invite your teen to suggest who he/she would like to be included.

HOW

- Would my child prefer a formal event or casual experience?

- What would be a good setting for the event? The house? Grandparent's home? A favorite restaurant? The church? A park?
- What kind of fun activity would our child enjoy doing with the older men or women before the formal portion of the event? (For example, a teen boy might enjoy going to a shooting range or golfing while a girl might prefer shopping or tennis.)

SAMPLE BLESSING PRAYER

The following is an example of a blessing prayer a parent might pray over his or her child during a rite of passage event to affirm the child and cast a vision for his/her future.

Dear Heavenly Father:

Thank you for the gift CHILD'S NAME is to me, to our family and to every person in this room. I give you praise for creating HIM/HER with such unique gifts.

- MENTION SPECIFIC EXAMPLES

I am so proud of the young MAN/WOMAN CHILD'S NAME is becoming and I ask you to give CHILD'S NAME strength and grace as HE/SHE continues moving from the world of childhood into the joys and responsibilities of becoming a Godly MAN/WOMAN. In this moment we celebrate the life CHILD'S NAME has lived so far and the exciting road HE/SHE will travel into a special future.

- MENTION SPECIFIC GOALS/OPPORTUNITIES AHEAD

Lord, you know how much I love CHILD'S NAME. You know that I will do anything within my power to help HIM/HER reach HIS/HER God-given potential. But, unlike the years behind us, CHILD'S NAME is moving into the season of life in which HE/SHE must own more of HIS/HER own faith and character formation. Please guide CHILD'S NAME on that journey and continue to nurture within HIM/HER a passion for you and the wisdom to make wise choices.

Finally, I ask you to pour out your blessings on my SON/ DAUGHTER'S future. I can't wait to see how you will use HIM/ HER in coming days.

In the name of Christ our Lord, Amen.

RITE OF PASSAGE PLANNING GUIDE

Even the most simple rite of passage experience can have a powerful impact in your teen's life. Ask yourself the following questions to plan the best approach for your son or daughter.

ASSESS

- Is our relationship strong enough for the experience to feel authentic versus forced?
- Does my child have other adults in his/her life who have had enough influence to participate in such an experience?
- Does my teen show signs he/she is willing to move toward adult responsibilities and attitudes?

If you answer "no" to any of these questions, it might be better to plan a special dinner alone together to begin meaningful dialog rather than attempt the full rite of passage experience.

WHEN

- What day is best to make this event special? On a birthday? In conjunction with a holiday? As a special day of its own?
- What date would work best for those who might need to travel to participate?

WHO

- What relatives should participate? Grandparents? Respected aunts or uncles? Older brothers or sisters?
- Is the child close to a pastor, youth minister, teacher, or coach he/she respects?
- If you are not planning the event as a surprise, invite your teen to suggest who he/she would like to be included.

HOW

- Would my child prefer a formal event or casual experience?
- What would be a good setting for the event? The house? Grandparents' home? A favorite restaurant? The church? A park?
- What kind of fun activity would our child enjoy doing with the older men or women before the formal portion of the event? For example, a teen boy might enjoy going to a shooting range or golfing while a girl might prefer shopping or tennis.

To help you explain the event to those you invite to participate and provide them with guidance for crafting a meaningful letter, download the full planning guide from the Faith Path website at centralbcs.org/faithpath/riteofpassage.

For additional ideas on planning, we recommend the book Spiritual Milestones by Jim & Janet Weidmann & J. Otis and Gail Ledbetter which is available from heritagebuilders.com.
