

CENTRAL WOMEN

Vol. 8

Nice to see you,
November!

WELCOME TO THE NEWSLETTER.

Hello sisters,
and Happy Fall, Y'all! We are enjoying the changes in temperature, even though they still go up and down. Personally, I see something beautiful in every season and though people like to say we "don't have four seasons here," we do, it's just more subtle. I didn't get a newsletter out in October, but that was because we were so busy!

WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

- Looking back at October
- Save the Date!
- Tuesdays in the Spring
- You can be a mentor
- Important Dates
- Book recommendations

I hope many of you were able to enjoy the Stand For Life tour, Fresh Grounded Faith or a Bible study this past month! Looking into the holiday season, we have some wonderful things coming up...

FRESH GROUNDED FAITH

8 ladies told us they made a profession of faith at the conference.
Praise God!

The Piecemakers
made 20 breast cancer pillows for the St. Joseph Cancer Clinic!
Way to go, ladies!

Join us Tuesday mornings, Spring, 2023!

We will be studying "Abide" by Jen Wilkin.

Other studies offered are TBA! If you are interested in leading a study, please contact us at women@centralbcs.org

Mentors Needed!

"And here's what I want you to teach the older women: Be respectful. Steer clear of gossip or drinking too much so that you can teach what is good to young women. Be a positive example, showing them what it is to love their husbands and children, and teaching them to control themselves in every way and to be pure. Train them to manage the household, to be kind, and to be submissive to their husbands, all of which honor the word of God."

Titus 2:3-5

You can be a mentor...yes, YOU! With your background, your personality, your experiences. Contact us today if you are interested in being paired with a younger woman seeking mentorship!

Other important dates:

- Sundays in Nov: Angel Tree tables open (pick up a packet!)

Book Recommendations

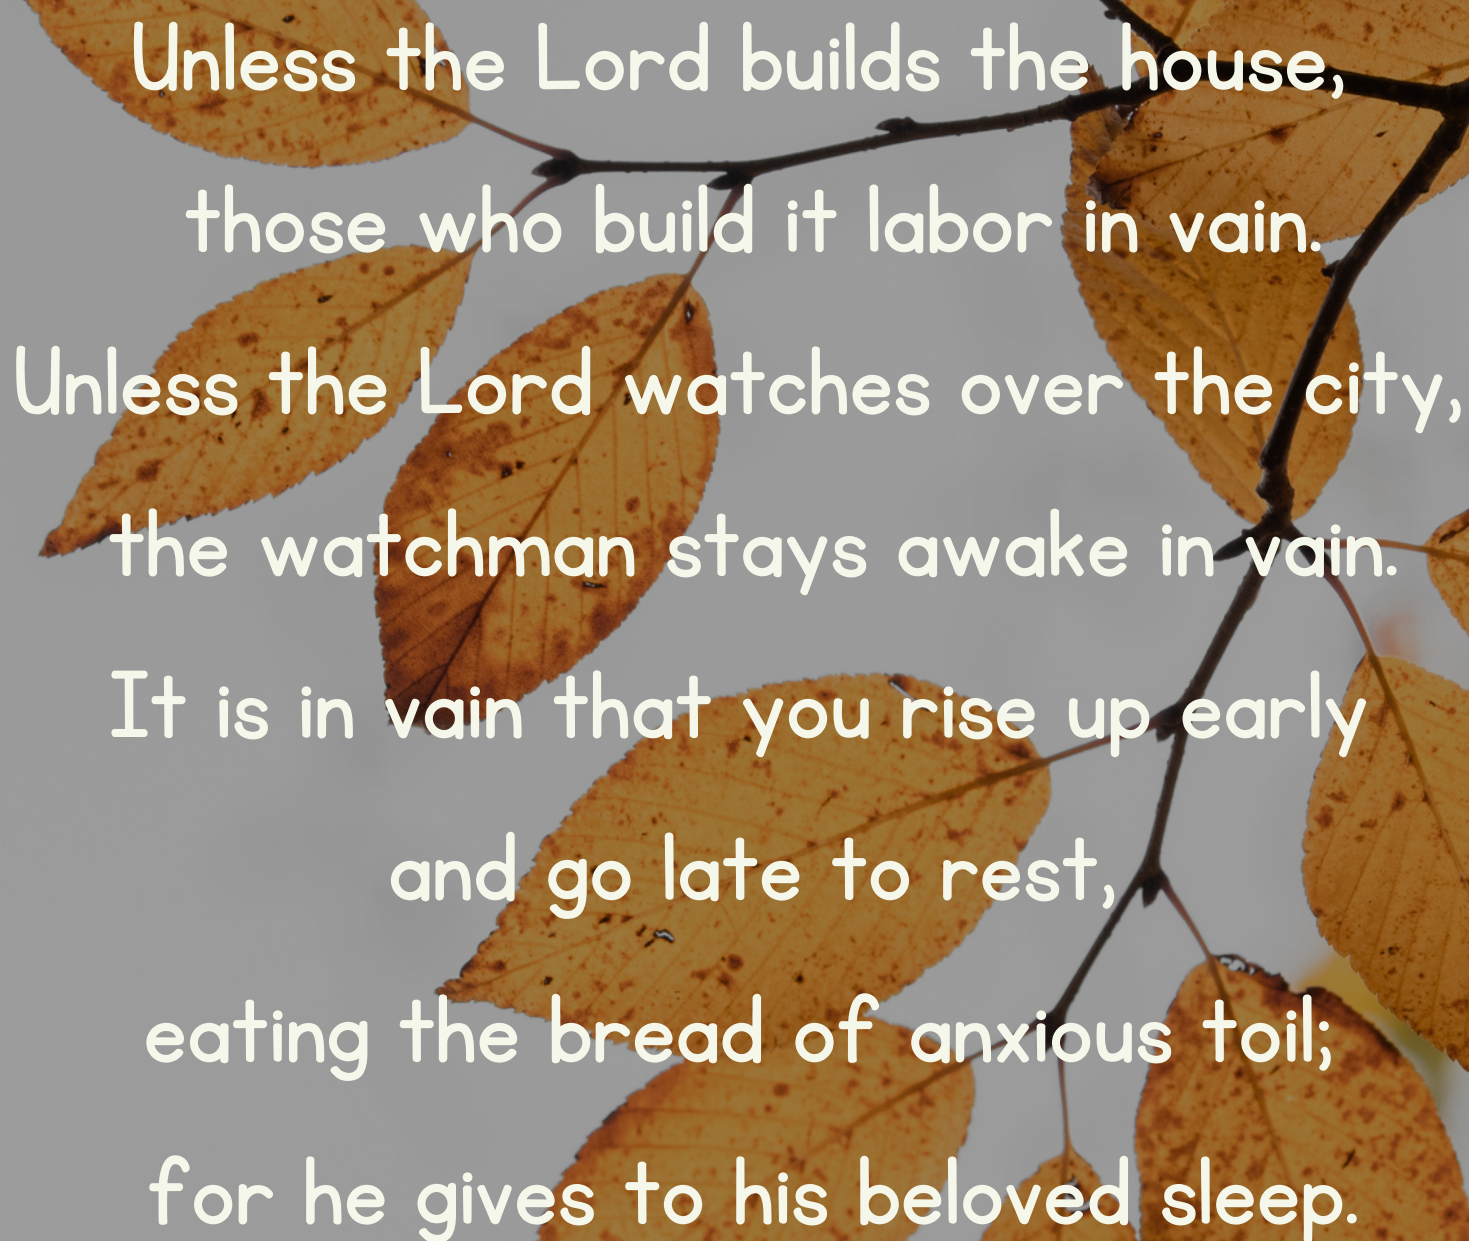

Maybe you got to hear Andrew Peterson last year at the Behold the Lamb of God concert (coming again this year!) Did you know he's also a gifted author? Adorning the Dark is so insightful, on being sub-creators with God in the community that is the Church.

Do you sometimes wish you had a tool to bring Christmas to life for yourself and your kids? Ann Voskamp created just that! Unwrapping the Greatest Gift takes you through the whole season of Advent while keeping your eyes on Jesus.

Did you get to hear Jennifer Rothschild speak at Fresh Grounded Faith? Have you ever done one of her Bible studies? Either way, you probably got an idea of her incredible testimony of God's provision and love. Hear the whole story in her autobiographical book, Lessons I Learned in the Dark.

Unless the Lord builds the house,
those who build it labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city,
the watchman stays awake in vain.
It is in vain that you rise up early
and go late to rest,
eating the bread of anxious toil;
for he gives to his beloved sleep.

Psalm 127:1-2
